

SALONUL DE PROIECTE

PIGGY BANK

24 april – 10 june 2012

Daniel Knorr (born in 1968 in Bucharest) lives and works in Los Angeles. Among his latest exhibitions are included: At Your Service: Art and Labor, Das Technische Museum, Vienna (2012); Kunsthalle Viena (2012); Daniel Knorr – Led R. Nanirok, Kunsthalle Basel (2009, solo); Scherben bringen Glück, Kunsthalle Fridericianum, Kassel (2008, solo); The Way Politics Influences Art and Vice Versa, Fondazione March, Padua (2008, solo); the Berlin Biennale (2008); Manifesta 7 (2008); U-TURN – Contemporary Art Quadrennial, Copenhagen (2008); Public Space Bucharest (2007).

Coate-Goale / Sorin Popescu (born in 1988 at Craiova) is a student of the Pharmacy Faculty at University of Medicine and Pharmacy in Craiova; in parallel, he is developing an artistic identity under the name of Coate-Goale. He makes various interventions in the public space, being concerned with, among other things, analogue photography. Coate-Goale combines his passion for chemistry with artistic investigations. In December 2011, he exhibited a photographic installation at the “Experiment Hiberna” (“Hiberna Experiment”), an event organized by Spatiul Platforma in Bucharest.